ROBBERT AT JOHNSTOWN .- Miles Benton, Constable of Johnstown borough, brought to our County Jail on Monday last, three lads charged with robbery. A correspondent of the Daily Union, says:

"Three boys, probably 16 or 17 years of age, came to Johnstown on New Year's day, and put up at Magill's Hotel, registering their names as Wm. Lendon, S. W. Townsend, and Louis Townsend, all of Columbia, Lancaster county, Pa. They left there soon and went to Mr. Zent's tayern, and pledged a gold watch for their boarding. On Sunday, the inst., when Rev. J. Martin, Lutheran Preacher, and family, were at Divine Service, these boys entered his house, and breaking everything open, took away one thousand dollars in gold and silver, one set of silver spoons, and a gold pencil, chain, &c., When Mr Martin reurned and found everything torn up, he made inquiry, and found out that these boys had been about the house. They were seen to leave it and ascend the hill south of Johnstown, where it was supposed they had concealed ihe money. They were arrested and examined, but no facts were elicited. On Monday, the 9th, the spoons, three gold watches, several pencils, &c., were found on the top of the hill, concealed in a hollow tree while the money was found in the broken-off top of the same tree, about fifteen feet up. They gained derstanding," in acts of the merest philanthropy, this height by climbing a sapling close by. The in the common, every day charities of a cup of stolen property was all recovered, and three gold | cold water to the thirsty, and a crust of bread to watches beside. -The boys were taken to Ebensburgh jail. Mr Martin's dwelling is not more than ten rods from the church in which he was preaching at the time. The money was not his own, but the property of a sisterin-law.

We would add that the youths are now here; they seem to be composed.

MELANCHOLY ACCIDENT .- An accident of an exceedingly distressing character occurred in Clearfield township, on Thursday, last. Major Wharton, who had just returned home with his sled, was in the act of detaching his horses, when he received a kick from one of them, while stooping' which threw him with the back part of his head against a stump, causing death in a very short time afterwards. He became perfectly conscious, a short time before he breathed his last, and bade farwell to his friends.

Major Wharton was one of our worthiest citizens, and by his industry, had acquired a com. fortable home, while his kindness of heart had secured him a host of friends. He leaves a devoted wife, and five infant children to mourn his unimely end. His remains were interred in the Catholic graveyard, at the Loop Church, on Saturday, last, whither they were followed dy an immense concourse of rolations and friends .- Alleghenian.

New England Cultivator.—This popular has been caused by a "baleful enchantment' weekly quarto, of the largest size, is devoted to and the influence of Mephistophiles. valuable practicable information on Breeding, Rearing, Managing and Fattening-of Cattle, Swine, Sheep and Poultry-care and management of Horses and Bees: Horticultural, Agricultural and Mechanical matters generally-comprising all that may be of interest to our Farmers and Mechaics. It will contain all the important news of the week, markets, literary contrbutions and choice miscellany-making it a complete Agricultural Family paper; published at $2 a year; four copies $6; twelve copies, 14; strictly in adwance, and a copy free to any one getting up a club. Address R. B. Fitts, publisher, Boston,

In the present dearth of news, it is rather heavy work to get up an interesting weekly; occasionally however, something turns up to break the monotony; for instance, in that delightful publication, the " Alleghanian," of this week, we read the following startling announcement : "In town .- Abraham Kopelin, Esq., on Satur-

Shade of Melchisadec! There is an item of intelligence, calculated to arouse the most indefferent, and disturb even

"Midnight's fathomless profound." We give in; we cannot match that; but will endeavor to wait patiently until the next convoy of Lager Beer arrives from Carrolltown.

The new Church in Loretto was solemnly consecrated on Friday the 6th inst.

High mass was celebrated by Rt. Rev. Bishop Newmann, of Philadelphia; a powerful sermon was preached by Rev. T. McCullough, and a discourse delivered in German by Rev. Wimmer, of Carrolltown, after which the benediction was prohounced by Rev. Mr. Corbet.

The building, although not quite completed, is very imposing.

"SNAIX! SNAIX!"-Mr. Jacob Campbell, who resides in Blacklick township, informs us that on Wednesday of this week, he found three large snakes in a snow drift; all of which he lost no time in sending to another and better world : these last Roses of Summer must have had a picturesque time, during the late cold "spell." We never before heard of snakes being caught out so late : wonder what their anxious Mas think ?

We had the pleasure this week of meeting with Messrs. Todd, Dougherty, J. P. and B. P. Thompson; they all complain of good health, and think that they will realize their golden and the promise of a new bonnet. If she don't dreams, and win a "pile" in the Quaker city: we are glad to hear of the prosperity of our Ebensburg boys, and are proud of the good name which they have earned for themselves.

In Town.-Dr. Belford, the popular Dentist, is in town, prepared to operate upon molars, incisors, &c., he will remain but a few days, at present: it is his intention to return about the March Court. He has taken rooms at the Man-

RETURNED .- Our former associate, William B. Sipes, has returned from a short visit to Belfast : he is flourishing in fine health and spirits, and is quite pleased with his trip.

" The New Inn."

"Rare Ben Jonson" once delighted appreciating audiences with the wit, the learning, the genuine poetry of a play bearing the above captivating title; in our degenerate days the legitimate Drama has fallen sadly into disrepute; yet although "The New Inn" never more graces the boards of national and capital Theatres, the scholar, the man of taste, always peruses the play with feelings of refined pleasure.

But it is of another creation of mingled Romance and reality we must now speak: to wit, the new Inn of Robert Smith.

The Smith family is one which during ages has been prominently before the public; from time immemorial there have, been Smiths who towered above the common herd,

"In shape and gesture proudly eminent." We have not space enough to widen upon them all-we cannot expatiate upon the bright deeds, the shining virtues, the commanding talents which may have distinguished individual Smiths, from the time of John the adventurer, who made love to Pocahontas, down to Joseph the Mormon, who was disposed to make love to every body ; we are even compelled to take Alexander at his word, and let him,

> "Love and flush and thrill, Or let him die.'

Our business is with Robert, who having bade adieu to the aesthetics and the angels, is disposed to find "that tranquility which passeth all unthe hungry.

Abandoning "star eyed science," turning away from the court of the Muses, he will preside in his new temple of the Actual; and as Prophet and Priest of the new Philosophy, will teach mankind to turn the cold shoulder upon the Mystical. the Abstract, and enrapture them with all that is Transcendental in common provender, and all that is Idvllic in three cent whiskey. So now for Robert's first "utterance."

LAUREL SWAMP INN.

In the Laurel Swamp is now ready to take in any person that may wish to be "taken in." The Human race have been wondering why this Tavern was not finished long ago. This is not at all surprising, as it has been nine weeks, sixteen days, and six hours longer building than the Tower of Babel-and caused more swearing, and confusion of tongues, undoubtedly than that same venerable edifice. Let good men all pray that the same calamity-the curse of God, may not follow this feeble effort of one poor man to get up a shanty for the protection of his fellow creatures. which was inflicted upon the proud and ambitious ones of old-who wished to get to Heaven on Stone and Mortar, instead of by Good Works and by Grace. This House and surrounding Swamp have been a taking in concern from the first on account of the nature of the soil. Titlequick sands, glorious legal uncertainties, and eter-nal delays. In the first place the title of the land has been in a state of "Bornation" (Cambria County named for birth) for ten years. This

Although seventeen scientific legal Midwives of the most undoubted genius and reputation as land Lawers have been at work all that time, no title can be found. Five Supreme Beldams are now at work with legal forceps and seissors to finish this " Bornation" from the forlorn mother of legal abstrac-tions, and whom it is hoped by hook or by crook by right or by wrong, will have it accomplished. The walls of the house itself have taken in more Whiskey and money to build them, than any ton Barns in Cambria county. The timbers of ships to last forever and then make good oven wood are boiled in Oil. From high price and scarcity of grease, the proprietor of the Laurel Swamp Inn thought it best to boil his timbers in Whiskey. There were also other considerations of a Scientific or Chemical character. For although the Whiskey element will rot the human gut, it preserves Timber, Peaches, and dead animal matter from decay. His Bar is only tolera-ble, Whiskey predominating; but his greatest trouble is that he can only sell by the Barrel or Butt, having no lisence, as a compensation to the human soul for the want of "the Music of the Spheres" in the shape of three cent drinks. The Proprietor will supply fiddling gratis, and every man can have the priviledge of drinking thirtytwo gallons or a common barrel. The nineteen gallon law of Massachusetts being considered a too puritanic and contracted arrangement for the Stomach of man in these mountain parts. His Table is the ordinary mountain grub, common shanty cooking, hard enough, but suitable to a region near the Line of enternal snow, where the human nose is required to be pickled in Whiskey or drop off with intense frost.

The Inn is situated in the Swamp one half mile west of Cakation, at the crossing of the three Alleghany Mountain roads, near a large sand rock Spring, which has its " Bornation" from the roots of a venerable Pine Forest. The building itself is of the Egyptain order of Architecture, that is, after the first formula of a human habitation or Temple for the household Gods, wigwam or tent like; in short the aboriginal shanty of the biped man, low and cavernous: simplicity and want having cut the graces en-

Hoping to have some custom, the Proprietor is happy to inform the public, that this resting place for the weary laden is now arranged. ROBERT SMITH.

The Proprietor would inform the public that Dr. Jackson, of the firm of Jackson & Howe, has rooms in his house-his office being in the original Squatters Log Cabin, opposite. The Dr. is well known to be sound on fits, and common snakes in the hat. His services can be obtained at any time.
